Saturday Golf

Paul Goodson's (14) dedication to improving his game has paid off handsomely with another better than handicap round on Saturday to easily win the Stableford competition. His terrific score of 43 points was achieved despite a miss on the par 4 twelfth. It was the only real blemish in a solid round that dominated second place finisher Lindsay Hogg (21), winner of last week's competition who returned 37 points. In third place was Luke Hadfield (16) who scored 36 points following three misses, two of which came at the last two holes.

In the Ladies event, Michell Dillon (9) continues her dominance, with 36 points, but was pushed all the way by Deaniee Henderson (33) who just failed on a count-back. Jean Youl was third.

John Murphy, Ron Schultze, Peter Jones, Shane Dibsdale and Denis Bacon completed the ball. The best round of the day was recorded by Andrew Spitty with a five over par 76.

Nearest to the pins: Col Wilkie (3rd), Chris Waterson (5th), John Murphy (9th), Super Pin - Shane Dibsdale (13th), Chris Manners (16th).

Note: This Saturday is the Monthly Medal Event.

Ron Schultze (24) continues to ride on a purple patch, winning the mid-week stableford competition on March 28 with 41 points. Despite two misses in a row on the back nine, Schultze's front nine and final six holes on the back were good enough to hold out second place finisher Rob Fabry (23) who finished with 38 points. Graham

The best round of the day was recorded by Gary Thorne with a four over par 75.
