Saturday Golf

The heat last Saturday was no match for Peter Hall (13) as he belied his handicap with a seven over par round 78 to win the Monthly Medal on count-back with a wonderful net score of 65. The six strokes annihilation of his handicap came about after producing two terrific birdies on the front nine, to turn at three over par, followed by a steady back nine of only four over par.

In the ladies, event, Michelle Dillon (10) scored a net 73 ahead of Katelyn Wright (38) who recorded a net 74. Olive Spitty (19) was third carding a net 75.

In the Men's event, occasional golfer Max Wilson (17) showed little rust as he also returned a net 65 for second place, with Doug Ellwood (23) placing third with a net 66.

The best round of the day was produced by Andrew Spitty (2) who looks to be back in terrific form, scoring a par round 71. The NAGA went to Ron Schultze.

Terry Turvey, Dave Conlan, Andrew Spitty and Scott Harry completed the ball pool.

Nearest to the pins: Doug Meehan (3rd), Doug Meehan (5th), Michelle Dillon (9th), Doug Ellwood - Superpin (13th), Max Wilson (16th).

Thursday Golf

A miss on the par 3 ninth hole was no trouble for Ron Schultze (25) who kept the remainder of his round under control to win the mid-week stableford competition with 38 points ahead of Geoff Williams (17) on count-back. Both players fought hard, each taking turns at the lead throughout the round as Gary Pay (18) just failed to take top spot after squandering a brilliant start to fall short with double bogies on the last two holes and also finish with 38 points.

The best round of the day went to Chris Manners (7) with a seven over par 78.

Doug Ellwood and Joel Gray completed the ball pool.

Nearest to the pins: Phil Lloyd (3rd), Chris Manners (5th), Gary Thorne (9th), Alan Free (13th), Joel Gray (16th). The Pen was awarded to Terry Turvey.
